NEW HOME FOR GIRLS

Hopper Homestead Will Be So Used.

Good Women Provide for Native Girls.

Will Be Known as "Kaulani Home for Girls."—Mrs. Waterhouse Is President.

The Kaulani Home for Girls is to be opened September 1st, in the old Hopper homestead at King and Punchbowl streets. The place has been leased by an organization of ladies who have for a long time been desirous of providing a home for girls who are without homes of their own. The place is intended primarily as a home for Hawaiian girls, but it will be open as well to girls of other nationalities.

The Hopper homestead was formerly used as a Salvation Army home and later as a boarding house. It is well adapted for use as the "Kaulani Home for Girls."

Mrs. Henry Waterhouse is the president of the little circle which is to open the home. "The Kaulani Home for Girls is intended as a place of abode for girls who otherwise would be without homes," said Mrs. Waterhouse yesterday. "The old Hopper homestead has been leased for the purpose and the home will be opened on September 1st. The home is not endowed and the money for its support is being raised in the community by a board of ladies, who have the matter in charge. It is not a charity home, nor is it to be sectarian. It will be independent in every way, simply a boarding home for girls."

"Primarily it is intended as a home for Hawaiian girls, for Normal School girls. Chinese and Japanese girls can also come there, though the home is opened for the native girls, the graduates of Kamehameha particularly. Then there are working girls who are in need of a home, those who clerk in stores, telephone girls, in fact we expect to reach all who are in need of homes."

"We intend to give cooking lessons, lessons in weaving and lace-making and in sewing. There will be a charge for lessons as well as for rooms."

The new home is to be in charge of Mrs. S. D. Heapy. She is at present on Maui for a vacation prior to taking up the school's work. Miss Lucy Adams is to have charge of the lace-making classes. Mrs. May Wilcox will have charge of the sewing and weaving classes and Miss Laura Green of the cooking class.

The officers of the Kaulani Home Association are: Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, president; Mrs. May Wilcox; vice-president; Miss Ida Pope, treasurer; Miss Lucy Adams, secretary; Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, auditor, and Mrs. S. C. Allen and Miss Laura Green directors.

BASEBALL TEAMS WILL FIGHT FOR THE HONORS

1:30 O'CLOCK.

KAMEHAMEHAS:—D. Kekuewa, catcher; Reuter, pitcher; J. Kekuewa, first base; Vannata, second base; Sheldon, shortstop; Plunkett, third base; Richards, left field; Lemon, center field; Jones, right field.

3:30 O'CLOCK.

H. A. C's:—Leslie, catcher; Joy, pitcher; Gleason, first base; Thompson, second base; Ensue, shortstop; Williams, third base; Hansman, left field; Aylett, center field; Louis, right field.

With the Kamehamehas in the first section and the Punahous in the second, the first baseball game of this afternoon promises to be as exciting as any match which has marked the League race. The Kamehamehas are the hardest fighters possible. There has been some gossip that Reuter would not be in the box for the team but the men say there will be no change.

The Punahous promise to get to the front. Castle was in good form on Saturday although he had only been on land for forty-eight hours. He has been working hard all week and promises to be even faster today. Young Perry, who returned yesterday from Yale, was out with the team last evening and will play, probably today though that is not settled.

If this is not enough to please the patrons of the sport, there will be a second game between the Honolulu and the Mailes, which promises to be fast and good. The Mailes will go in with a determination to make the game good and hard. Kiley is not in shape and will not play, White catching. This should be a good game and the men will try and make it so.

ALL READY FOR BOXING CONTEST

Weday will referee the fifteen round go tonight between Millett and Billy Woods. This was decided yesterday morning at a meeting between the men and their backers. Weday is perfectly agreeable to both men and his own intimate knowledge of ring affairs should make him a good man for the position. They will meet with five ounce gloves. Millett, interviewed yesterday morning, expresses cautious confidence in the result. "I am up against a good un I know," said the goodnatured, broad-shouldered fellow, "but I'm going to use all I know. I don't know if I am as quick as he is but I ought to be pretty fair, I worked against some clever fellows on the Coast. I don't intend to chuck away any chances but I'll have to wait till time is called before I know which way I'm going to handle the bout. I'll do my best," he concluded with a grin.

Billy Woods also was reticent. "The lad is clever and he's fast and he's strong, but I've been up against others who were all that. I'm in good shape, that's all I know and I'm going to do my best."

Of the preliminaries it is said that Ah Sam is the heavier and equally clever but has a bad pair of hands. Latham has openly expressed his determination to get the best of Huihui, but the Hawaiian does not seem to be worrying about the outcome. It is rumored that Latham has been loose in his training but this may or may not be a Camp McKinley dodge for better odds. The bout will be an interesting one whatever the decision.

Little Heine and Van Giesen are both favorites by reason of their cleverness and grit. Each bantam is determined to secure the right to crow and the boys are likely to fiddle for openings in the first round, but they will be at it in earnest before the end.

Prospects of a crowded house are good and along the back rows Camp McKinley and Paketown will show up in force.

POLO AT THE PARK TODAY

At 4 p. m. this afternoon at Kapiolani Park there will be a polo game between four teams made up of the veteran players and the newest recruits. This will be the last game of the season and will take the form of a reunion of polo men.

The first and third periods will be played by the following teams:

1901 Veterans—J. P. Erdman (Highball), No. 1; Fred Waterhouse, No. 2; Alfred Carter (Cowboy), No. 3; Robt. Atkinson (Puck), No. 4.

1902 Recruits—F. H. Derby, No. 1; Harold Giffard, No. 2; Cushman Carter, No. 3; George Dennison (Tripod), No. 4.

The second and fourth periods will be played between the following teams: Old Champions (1901)—Henry Damon, No. 1; "Kauka" Judd (Derby), No. 2; S. E. Damon (Pepper), No. 3; John Fleming (Zuleika), No. 4. New Champions (1902)—A. F. Judd (Dandy), No. 1; G. C. Potter (Greyboy), No. 2; W. F. Dillingham (Puuloa), No. 3; C. S. Dole (Hakulani), No. 4. Substitutes: Dickey, Cobb, Ballou, Perry.
